► AN EXCLUSIVE EVENING OF INDULGENCE AT THE COSY PICTURESQUE FERRETTI'S ISOLA, OFF THE COAST OF MUMBAI, SAW SOME OF THE MOST AFFLUENT AND PROMINENT INDIVIDUALS IN THE CITY COMING TOGETHER TO RAISE A TOAST AMIDST THE ARABIAN SEA.

MillionaireAsia - India and Ferretti Yachts in association with Balvenie and BNP Paribas celebrated a special evening amidst the open sea, replete with handcrafted single malt tasting that made for an exclusive evening of indulgence.

All the guests arrived at the Ferretti's Isola on speedboats and were greeted by the soft tunes of the music played by the live band at the venue. What added to the joie de vivre of the evening, was the single malt appreciation that took the guests on a journey through the various expressions of Balvenie, ranging from the 12 Year Old DoubleWood to the 21 Year Old PortWood. Anish Trivedi conducted the appreciation and made the guests familiar with the finer nuances of tasting and nosing these malts, whilst touching upon the 5 rare crafts that are the hallmark of the Balvenie.

With the cooperation and support of 'All Things Nice' the experience of the evening went a notch higher. 'All Things Nice' is a platform developed by Nikhil Agarwal for the appreciation of fine wines, luxury spirits and gourmet delicacies by the aficionados of luxury.

Gautama Dutta, Director of Marine Solutions, expressed his thoughts saying, "It was a magical evening. The Isola was a perfect setting as it is both unusual and beautiful. There was great company on-board and such get-togethers give us an opportunity to socialise with and know more about people from the industry that we work with."

On the other hand, Kavir Advani, Brand Manager for Balvenie added, "Jetting guests off to a mid-sea hideaway, minutes away from the hectic pace of city life, the partnership with MillionaireAsia India and Ferretti Yachts indeed perfectly complemented the unique whisky tasting experience we strive to create at Balvenie. It was an ideal evening that allowed us the opportunity to engage in a dialogue with the perfect consumer clientele; the well-versed whisky connoisseur, who appreciates the understated elegance and the handcrafted luxury that Balvenie epitomises."

Commenting on the pleasurable experience of the evening, Gautam Joshi, Senior VP - Marketing at BNP Paribas Wealth Management said, "A unique setting out in the sea, a fine single malt whisky and an eclectic mix of people, all combined to create a thoroughly enjoyable experience for all."

The glittering guests, alluring ambiance, and the unmatched single malts made the evening a memorable affair for everyone.
