5 THINGS TO DO TODAY

Relish shakes and burgers

1 45, the all-day eatery that replaced Cheval in Kala Ghoda late last year, has revamped its menu with some delectable summer inclusions. New entrants include chilli cheese waffles, honey-sriracha chicken wings, Amritsari chole and something called an "Animal Style Burger", which sounds rather juicy. Feel like indulging in something decadent? Their Might Oreo Milkshake (in pic) is sinful enough to fit the bill.

WHERE: 145, Kala Ghoda
WHEN: Ongoing, 11.30 am to 1.30 am CALL: 40396638

Girls, join a travel meet-up

This one is strictly for the fairer sex. The Sisterhood of Travel, a community of women who travel together, will host a special meet-up this afternoon. Not only will they share exciting travel stories, but also impart great travel tips for women. Also on the cards is a fun (and surprise) travel game that will get you prepped for your next trip. A must-attend for all lady globetrotters.

WHERE: Doolally Taproom, Bandra

Celebrating India's Finest

BOOK NOW

Earlier this year, All Things Nice hosted the fourth edition of Indian Wine Consumer's Choice Awards (IWCCA), where wine enthusiasts evaluated over 100 Indian wines. At Celebrating India's Finest, the winners of IWCCA will be celebrated — which means you can get to try some of the best free-flowing reds, whites and sparkling. Pair that with scrumptious appetisers by Le Pain Quotidien, fine chocolates by Pascati and gourmet cheese by Kerry Gold — and you have a rather lavish affair on your hands. Part of the proceeds raised from the event will be forwarded to Atma, an organisation that empowers grassroots education NGOs.

WHERE: Le Pain Quotidien, Colaba
WHEN: June 4, 7.30 pm ENTRY: Rs 1,800 (all inclusive) CALL: 9820698883

PLAN AHEAD

Tungreshwar Wildlife Sanctuary

Love flora and fauna? Sign up for this trek organised by Bombay Natural Historic Society (BNHS) where experts will guide you through the Tungreshwar Wildlife Sanctuary, near the Sanjay Gandhi National Park in Borivali. During the trek, check out deciduous and semi-evergreen trees, along with birds like Black-hooded Oriole, Brown-headed Barbet, Red-whiskered and Red-vented Bulbul.

WHERE: Dadar TT (meeting point) WHEN: June 12, 6.30 am ENTRY: Rs 700 for BNHS members, Rs 800 for non-members CALL: 22871202

Read a British play

Caryl Churchill's Far Away is the play of choice at this session of QTP's Great Text Reading. The play, which was first produced for the Royal Court Theatre Upstairs in London in November/December 2000, begins with the Harper and Joan, an aunt-and-niece duo who have unwittingly witnessed an ethnic cleansing in an abandoned farmhouse. The reading will be followed by a discussion on the play.

WHERE: 7 Bungalows, Andheri

Shimmy and shake

Don't know if you want to master the sensual art of belly-dancing or give in to the thumkas and jhatkas of Bollywood dance numbers? Well, thanks to "Belly-Bolly", you don't need to pick between the two. Get the best of both worlds at a free trial class this evening, helmed by dance instructor Kanchi Shah. If you like what you learn, enrol for classes which begin on June 3.

WHERE: Arts in Motion, Bandra
WHEN: 6.30 pm to 7.30 pm (trial class)
ENTRY: Free CALL: 9833214611

Get your French film fix here

Every Monday, Alliance Française screens some of the best in classic and contemporary French cinema. This evening, catch a screening of Une Place Sur Terre (A Place on Earth), a 2015 drama written and directed by Fabienne Godet. The film follows Antoine (Benoît Poelvoorde), a lonely photographer. One day, he hears a mesmerising piece of sonata playing from the house across his, and he becomes enchanted with its source — a pianist named Elena (Ariane Labeled).
